

Climate Change and the Future of Food Forum

- Climate change impacts on global food security
- Implications for Australian food production and supply
- Risks and prospects for Tasmanian farmers
- Grow your own!
The rise and rise of urban food production

Rohan Nelson

Associate Professor of Agricultural Economics & Policy at UTAS. Expertise in systems research to improve world food productivity

Leah Galvin

Leah's background at the Heart Foundation is in public health nutrition with a special interest in regional and community food security.

Will Bignell

Bothwell farmer and researcher, Will Bignell explores some of the implications of climate change down on the farm.

5.30 – 7.00pm June 15

Aurora Theatre

IMAS Building

Salamanca Place